++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunshine and showers, before strong winds and rain arrive Thursday.

Today:
Despite a dry start showers quickly begin to develop in the morning, heavy and possibly thundery at times. Into the afternoon any showers then progress eastwards allowing some drier and sunnier spells to develop, particularly in the west. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Tonight:
Any remaining showers quickly die out to give a dry and clear night. Feeling chilly, with perhaps some localised frost and fog patches. Turning cloudier into the early hours. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Thursday:
A dry start to the day but soon rain arrives from the west, heavy and persistent at times, and continues through into the night. Becoming windier. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Remaining wet Friday with strong winds. Calmer into Saturday, with showers and sunny spells. Unsettled again Sunday, with another band of rain arriving.
